

Project Engineer

SJM GmbH, Ludwigshafen, RheinlandPfalz

Full time - 1200 employees worldwide– automotive

Our products help making entire exhaust industry safer and more sustainable. 1.200 employees create added value for our customers around the world with their enthusiasm and competence. You will join a flexible, internationally oriented team and work on exciting Automotive projects from the inquiry, to series delivery.

If you are willing to be part of the transformation the automotive sector, SJM is the right place to be.

YOUR ROLE

- Contribute to the sales growth by existing & new customers
- Follow up the overall projects schedule and APQP activities
- Editing of commercial and technical offers
- Customer support for technical cost reduction activities
- Act as liaison between customers and all departments within SJM by coordinating technical service, quality aspects and sales discussion
- Collect competitor information
- Guarantee & follow up of the rules & stages of the project development plan.
- Supporting problem resolution & quality improvements.

YOUR SKILLS

- Bachelor's degree in engineering
- Understanding of automotive sector and trends
- Good knowledge in MS Office (Excel, Power Point, Project)
- Fluent English
- Good knowledge in French & German are a plus
- Flexibility
- Willingness to travel (up to 20% mainly within Europe)

Come and join us !